2015 Miss Fredericksburg Fair

Miss Sophia Ramsel

Sophia Ramsel is a senior at the University of Mary Washington where she is currently studying political science. She has been active in sports most of her life and works multiple jobs. Coming from a foster home, Sophia advocates healthy relationships through her platform S.O.A.R.: Stand Out And Rise (bringing awareness to domestic violence and child abuse). With her career ambitions, she hopes to become a policy maker than can help change the child abuse laws and create safer, healthier homes for children across the state.

The Fredericksburg Fair has given her opportunities to speak on behalf of not just her platform but a multitude of causes like Toys For Tots, Autism Acceptance and Relay for Life. She has been involved with the Fair for 6 years and always looks forward to coming back each year. On her journey to Miss Virginia Association of Fairs this past January, Sophia was able to walk away with the first runner up spot. Being so close to achieving her dream of competing at Miss Virginia, she was encouraged to compete an upcoming local where she was crowned Miss Martinsville-Henry County and will go on to compete for Miss Virginia in June.
