General Rules and Regulations

RULE 1. INTERPRETATIONS, AMENDMENTS & VIOLATIONS

Every exhibitor, concessionaire, employee, or any other person having business on the grounds is required to abide by these or any other rules that may be formulated by the Fair, through its authorized officials, and the Fair reserves itself the sole and exclusive right to construe and interpret its rules and regulations and arbitrarily determine and settle all matters and differences in regard thereto.

RULE 2. ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Section 1. Check each division for entry deadlines and mail or e-mail the completed forms to the appropriate department. Entry forms and ONLINE registration are available at www.fredericksburgfair.org

Section 2. Entry forms are also included in the catalog. Additional forms may be obtained from the Fair Office or by visiting www.fredericksburgfair.org. No entries will be accepted after the deadline specified by the department superintendent. (Photocopies of entry forms are acceptable.)

Section 3. Unless expressly accepted in the special rules for the various departments, entries must be made in the name of the bona fide owner. Should any entry be found to be otherwise, the exhibitor will forfeit to the Fair any premiums awarded by the judges.

Section 4. No exhibit can be entered in more than one class, and no entry should be made in the championship and sweepstakes classes since the judge will make this determination at the appropriate time, unless specifically mentioned in the catalog.

Section 5. All livestock must be on display, uncovered, daily from Fair opening to 8:00 p.m. and be groomed and ready on judging day when classes are called. Ribbons must be displayed in a neat, secure way so that visitors may know which animal won the respective ribbons.

RULE 3. EXHIBITS

Section 1. Entry times for exhibits are stated in the special rules of each department.

Section 2. No exhibits may be removed from the grounds prior to the Monday after the fair is concluded. Permission may be granted to allow exhibitors to attend another bona fide fair, name and date of which must be included in request for early removal of exhibits. If an exhibit is removed contrary to these rules, exhibitor shall forfeit his/her right to exhibit at next year's fair and forfeit his/her premiums.

Section 3. All animals in the Fair must be sound, except in cases of an animal injured by accident, which does not impair it for breeding purposes.

Section 4. The Fair management reserves the right to refuse any entry offered and to require the removal from the grounds of any exhibit or animal, which the Fair management would, for any reason, deem unfit or objectionable.

RULE 4. EXHIBITORS

Section 1. Each exhibitor will receive one pass good for admission for one person for one time only. Ride tickets must be purchased separately.

Section 2. Each exhibitor of sheep, goats, or cattle will receive one pass good for one person and vehicle the full ten days of the Fair.

Section 3. Each livestock owner must provide his/her own feed during the Fair.

Section 4. Exhibitors of livestock in classes open to registered animals only must furnish evidence of such in space provided on the entry blank. Ages must be stated correctly. Registration papers must be presented at check-in.

RULE 5. JUDGES AND JUDGING

Section 1. If in the opinion of the judge that any exhibit is not individually worthy, neither ribbon nor premium will be awarded.

Section 2. All exhibits must be ready for judging by the times designated for judging in each department.

Section 3. Each individual animal or group should be promptly brought into the judging arena when the class is called. No awards shall be made in livestock classes unless the animal is taken from the pen and shown in the ring or in the place designated.

RULE 6. PROTESTS AND APPEALS

Section 1. All protests against awards or otherwise must be made in writing to the Secretary within eight hours after the cause of protest and accompanied by a deposit of $20.00. After thorough investigation, if the protest is without foundation, the deposit will be forfeited.

Section 2. All protests shall be referred to a committee of the Fair President, the Superintendent of the Department involved, and one disinterested attending exhibitor in that department.

RULE 7. PREMIUMS AND AWARDS

Section 1. The right is reserved to withhold the prizes awarded in every case in which it shall appear to the Fair that the regulations have not been complied with or that fraud or deception has been attempted or where the article or animal is not worthy, and its decision shall be final and binding on all parties.

Section 2. Prizes and Premiums should be picked up no later than 10 days after the Fair ends.

RULE 8. COMMERCIAL EXHIBITIONS AND OTHERS

Section 1. No person will be permitted to distribute advertising matter upon the fairground except from their commercial exhibit. The posting of bills, cards, etc., other than in the space occupied by the exhibitor, is strictly prohibited.

Section 2. The distribution of handbills, flyers, etc., is not allowed under Section 1 of these rules and will not under any circumstances be permitted.

Section 3. Anyone violating these rules is liable to fine and expulsion from the fairgrounds. Such advertising material will be removed by an agent of the Fair at the cost of $25.00 per hour, minimum of $50.00. Such cost will be paid by said exhibitor.

RULE 9. LIABILITY

Section 1. Exhibitors, both commercial and agricultural, and concessionaires of all kinds assume all risks of damage or loss, either to person or for all and every cause whatsoever, including fire, the elements, violation of the law, negligence either on the part of the Fredericksburg Agricultural Fair, Inc., its officers, servants, agents, or employees, or other person or persons, and it is further expressly understood and agreed between the exhibitors and Fredericksburg Agricultural Fair, Inc., that the said Fredericksburg Agricultural Fair, Inc., incurs no liability of obligation to the exhibitors, other than to permit the exhibitor to use the grounds, buildings, or tents for exhibits.

Animal Health Regulations

1. All livestock will be checked in by an accredited veterinarian or VDAC employee the first day of the fair. As long as they state that the livestock are free from contagious and infectious diseases. All livestock shall be allowed to unload and be exhibited at the fair. All out of state livestock must have a health certificate.
2. Because of the concerns regarding biosecurity, any animal that has been on the premises of a public livestock auction facility within 30 days of the opening of the Fair will not be allowed on the fairgrounds.
3. The State of Virginia Veterinary's Office and local veterinarian will be on call during the Fair for any concerns that are raised for all livestock on premises. The on-call Vet will be Louisa Veterinary Service, Inc. Dr. Melinda or Dr. Kate.
4. All animals will be checked in by a person designated by the superintendent, vet, or the livestock superintendent.

Cattle

All cattle must be deemed by an accredited veterinarian to be free of contagious and infectious diseases. All animals must be tattooed or tagged to match registration papers. Body condition score will be determined by the vet or VDAC employee; and they will have the final word. All out-of-state cattle must be accompanied by a health certificate dated no more than 30 days prior to the fair.

Respiratory Disease and Vaccinations: All cattle shall be vaccinated in the current show year against the respiratory complex (shipping fever), including infectious bovine rhinotracheitis (IBR), not less than 15 days prior to the show.

Sheep

All sheep must be deemed by an accredited veterinarian to be free of contagious and infectious diseases. All animals must be tattooed or tagged to match registration papers. All out of state animals must be tattooed or tagged to match health papers.

Goats

All goats must be deemed by an accredited veterinarian to be free of contagious and infectious diseases. All out of state animals must be tattooed or tagged to match health papers.

Horses

No horse is permitted on the grounds unless it has a negative Coggins test accomplished within 12 months of the date of exhibition.

Swine

All swine must be deemed by an accredited veterinarian to be free of contagious and infectious diseases. All out of state animals must be tattooed or tagged to match health papers. See individual departments for special rules and regulations.

Horticulture entry forms are encouraged to be mailed so that entry cards may be done in advance

1. You may enter one or both flower shows. All entries must be placed between 8:00 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. on July 26 and/or July 31. Exhibits must remain in place until 9:00 PM on August 4. You may also pick up entries after 12:00 (noon) p.m. until 7:00 p.m. on Monday, August 5.
2. Judging will begin at 10:30 a.m. on July 26 and July 31. Only authorized personnel may remain on the floor during judging.
3. The Flower Show Committee will exercise care but cannot be responsible for loss or damage of exhibits.
4. Plants on the Virginia State Conservation List may be used only when grown by the exhibitor and labeled with the botanical and common name.
5. All entries must be checked by the Classification Committee, and they shall have the authority to disqualify any entry not conforming to the schedule.

Judges' decisions are final. Judges will sign blue ribbons and give comments on all other design exhibits for educational purposes only.

DIVISION I HORTICULTURE RULES

1. All entries must be grown by the exhibitor and container grown plants must have been in exhibitor's possession for at least three (3) months.
2. An exhibitor is allowed one entry in each class or subdivision and will be limited to ten (10) specimens.
3. All horticultural specimens must be labeled with correct botanical name (genus and species), variety or cultivar when possible. (The common name may be added.)
4. The Committee may subdivide classes by cultivar, type and/or color when warranted.
5. The exhibitor must furnish his/her containers of clear glass, transparent, uniform size. Cotton, a sprig of evergreen, or wood may be used in the neck of the containers wedging for support of the specimen, if necessary. Container should be in good proportion to the specimen. Stems must be visible for judging. No lettering or decorations may be on the container/bottle, and the exhibitor must remove these containers after the show.
6. Cut specimens may not exceed 21 inches in length from cut tip, except Section K and L which must not exceed 30 inches.
7. A specimen is one bloom, cluster, spike, or spray.
8. The scale of points in NGC "Handbook for Flower Shows" Revised 2017 edition will be used for judging all horticulture entries.
9. All specimens must be placed by the Placement Committee.
10. A collection consists of five (5) or more different varieties of a related plant or flower. Each must be exhibited in a different container and correctly labeled with a Botanical name (genus and species).
11. Double potting is allowed. Inner container must not be visible.
12. Container grown plants must be in the exhibitor's possession for at least 90 days except multiple and combination plantings. They must be in the exhibitor's possession and grown together for at least six (6) weeks.
13. African violets may be exhibited in decorative pots.
14. Roses must be exhibited with two (2) to five (5) sets of five-leaflet leaves.
15. Gladiolus must be exhibited with attached foliage, with at least two (2) leaves for balance. This is an exception to the rule of no foliage below water in the container.
16. Marigolds and zinnias must be exhibited with foliage proportionate to bloom size.
17. Staging is provided for hanging container grown plants.
18. Top heavy specimens require containers that are large and heavy enough to prevent tipping over. Unobtrusive glass marbles may be used.
19. The same exact entries/specimens may not be entered in both shows.
